

short story quiz

Name _____

1. _____ is when the reader knows the unexpected before the characters.
2. A _____ is the universal truth that the author is trying to convey.
3. The _____ is the central character of the story.
4. A figure of speech where the speaker says less than what she/he feels is _____.
5. A writing technique used to give the reader clues about upcoming events is called _____.
6. The overall feeling created by characters and setting is called _____.
7. The _____ of the story is the author's attitude toward it.
8. _____ is the characteristic way an author uses language, sentences and imagery.
9. The use of details to describe one thing in terms of another is called _____.
10. _____ is an exaggerated statement usually causing a humorous effect.
11. The time and place of a story is called the _____.
12. Name three conflicts: 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____.
13. _____ point of view is with only one person.
14. When communicating information about characters through their speech and actions, we call that _____.
15. _____ point of view is all knowing.
16. Label the following plot line.

